

Suze Orman's Financial Intervention Contract

Dear _____ ,

I write this with love and respect.

From this day forward, I want you to know that I love you so much, and I love our relationship so much, that I am going to say no to you out of love, rather than say yes out of fear.

If you ask for money, I will say no.

If your lights are turned off, you will have to sit in your own darkness until you decide to turn the inner light of your soul on so you can be a beacon of joy for all those to see.

If your utilities are turned off, you will sit in the cold until you decide to warm up your own soul.

If you cannot afford gas and insurance on your car, you will have to sit idle till you decide that you have the power within you to move in the direction you really want to go.

If you cannot pay your mortgage or rent, you will have to take up residence in the home of your own heart till you love yourself enough to move out of fantasy and into reality.

I do this out of love and total respect for you and for us.

I do this because I want you to be as great as I know you are.

I do this because I want you to know that you have what it takes to SAVE YOURSELF.

I do this so that we can save our relationship.

I will always be here to love you.

I will always be here to support your efforts.

I will always be here to listen to your fears.

I will always be here to lift you up emotionally and spiritually.

I will never abandon my unconditional love for you.

On this date, _____, we commit by our signatures below to truly become the family and the people we were born to be.
