

A Pledge to Stand in The Truth

I, _____, pledge to stand in my truth.

I understand that only by standing in my truth will I be able to create a foundation from which to build lasting security.

I pledge to recognize and embrace what is real for me today—not what used to be true or what I wish were true—and to ground every choice I make in that truth.

I pledge to live below my means, but within my needs.

I pledge to learn to take greater pleasure in saving than spending.

I pledge to define myself by who I am, not what I have.

Every thought I think, every word I speak, and every action I take from this day forward will reflect that I am standing tall in my truth and will keep me committed to a path that will lead to peace, financial security, and happiness.
