SIDNEY POITIER

New York Times Bestseller

Born in Miami in 1927 and raised in the Bahamas, Sidney Poitier became one of the most groundbreaking actors to ever grace the big screen and the first African-American to win an Oscar® for Best Actor in 1963.

At that very moment, Oprah remembers her 10-year-old self being awakened to her own possibility as she pressed her knees into the cold linoleum floor and watched the Academy Awards® on a black-and-white TV.

“I thought, ‘If he can be that, I wonder what I can be?’”
— Oprah
