

SIBYLLA'S ACTION PLAN

You won't hear me argue against the fact that helping family or friends who are in need is an act of grace. You will, however, hear me argue against co-signing a loan and/or lending them money if you can't afford to do so. No matter how wonderful your intentions are or how desperate someone is, you must think twice about co-signing a loan because my advice is to never co-sign a loan.

- Call the Bank and Ask Permission to Have a Short Sale.
- Increase Term Life Insurance to $1,000,000.
- Change Your Beneficiary to Your Mother.
- Get a Living Revocable Trust.
- Download Suze's "Insurance Evaluator"
